Welcome to your very own peaceful oasis centrally located close to both airports and downtown Orlando! You will enjoy stunning views of Lake Giles just outside your door from this spectacular 1959 home. You will be greeted with a feel of coziness, charm and a touch of history as you enter the front door. The kitchen is well equipped with solid wood cabinets, a vintage built-in oven and terrazzo floors. Light and bright it includes a separate eat-in area and/or mud room all with a view of the beautiful lake. The large living room and dining room area with its classic built-in opens onto your own spacious screen enclosed oversized deep pool with deck area. Three bedrooms and two full vintage bathrooms make this home perfect for your family. Gorgeous Terrazzo floors are throughout the kitchen, hallway, bathrooms and one of the bedrooms plus stylish tile window sills throughout. Outdoors, there is plenty of cool deck space for multiple seating areas and is equipped with a shed make this a rare beauty. As a bonus, there is an actual bomb shelter included!! What a great space for storing wine or be creative and use for additional storage. Just outside the screened door you are greeted with a fire pit area – perfect for relaxing and enjoying the surrounding wildlife of owls and various birds. This home has a fresh new coat of paint, a septic tank pumped just 3 months ago, built in safes, and is wired for a generator! There is plenty of parking space in the oversized 2 space covered carport. Located on a cul de sac and just steps away to the lake for your enjoyment where skiing is allowable as well as fishing, canoeing or kayaking.
