This idyllic country home is a horseman's dream with all the amenities, opportunities, and possibilities for bountiful farmland, livestock, or private vineyard. This 5 Acre oasis sits in the quiet town of Pierson which provides an abundance of small-town charm and bucolic privacy. Zoned for horses, this is a spectacular property comprising verdant pastures, with mature trees acting as sentry to provide shade and added privacy to the land and its 3 bed, 2 bath home built in 2000. This scenic residence offers a light and bright aesthetic with updated flooring, cathedral ceilings and a spacious feeling of openness. This layout is complemented by one completely renovated bathroom and the second bathroom to be updated upon closing. With the bounty of the land at your disposal, you will find the acreage home with 2 workshops/sheds as well as an oversized carport for a boat, horse trailer, or various other parking needs. Located less than 35 minutes to Ormond beach and Daytona International Airport, less than 9.7 miles to the St. John River and less than 5 miles to Lake George State Park, residents of 650 Still Road will enjoy easy access to all conveniences while retaining the peaceful privacy of country living. Updates include water softener (2018), roof (2017), A/C (2016). A must-see for horse owners looking for a place to have their horses and home together. Inquire today and soak in the bounty of the land for yourself!
