Elegant travertine flooring home is located in the North Village in Celebration with easy access to major expressways. You will quickly be impressed with this single-story, three-bedroom, two-bath home with NO CARPET, screened in lanai area and handicap-accessible master shower. The front porch offers a generous amount of space to entertain guests. As you walk through the front door, you will feel the openness with the 10-foot ceilings and open living space. From the foyer area to the right is the second bedroom with French doors, closet space, and built-in shelving nooks. To the left is the second bath and bedroom three. Directly ahead is the family room/living area with an open eat-in kitchen that includes a bar-high eating/bar area. The master suite offers a vast amount of space with double doors to the en-suite bathroom and includes a private walk-in closet. The renovated master bathroom includes travertine flooring, and handicap accessible gorgeous walk-in shower.
