This updated home in the gated community of Sebastian Crossings has beautiful curb appeal at the front and a screened-in pool in the backyard. Inside, you'll find wood-look tile floors laid on a diagonal throughout the entire home (no carpets here!), modern light fixtures and vaulted ceilings. Your kitchen features stainless steel appliances, a dining nook, lots of cabinet space and a breakfast bar. Through the slider in the dining room, your backyard oasis awaits! You can grill up dinner on the covered patio – complete with lights & a fan – while your guests swim in the pool covered by a screened enclosure. The amazing paver deck extends beyond the enclosure, and the rest of your fenced-in backyard has a fireplace, landscaped planting beds, lovely palm trees and lots of lounge space. The master bedroom here boasts tray ceilings and a walk-in closet, while the spacious ensuite includes dual sinks, a tiled shower and a water closet. The other guest rooms share the hallway bathroom with
