Prepare to be stunned when you enter this beautifully renovated Estate home located on the quiet, private lake of Lake Cypress near downtown Windermere! This luxury home, with an attached guest house, is situated on over 1.6 acres in the heart of Windermere and includes private access to the Butler chain of lakes. As you arrive, you will be pleasantly surprised at the extremely large driveway giving you ample space for family parking and large gatherings especially with the holidays fast approaching and a 3-car garage! As you enter through the stunning, solid wood dual entry doors, you will be drawn to the gorgeous lake views seen from the back of the home. The entry, showcasing hand-crafted woodworking, welcomes you with its charm. Just past the entryway, is the spacious family room offering a wood-burning fireplace and large expansive windows providing heaps of natural light. Let's talk about the show stopping french inspired kitchen in this home! You will fall in love with all this kitchen offers including the light-colored kitchen cabinets, stainless-steel Viking appliances including a pot filler, oversized kitchen island, tons of storage, subway tile backsplash, brick accent wall and ambient lighting. An additional feature of this kitchen is the spacious butler's pantry. As if that wasn't enough, for the pantry doors, the homeowner's have repurposed and restored a set of rustic, wood doors dating back to the 1800's - talk about a one-of-a-kind feature and great conversation piece! The home includes an additional living space which can be used as a formal or casual space. You will enjoy making your favorite beverage or cocktail at the fully equipped wet bar.
