Ladies and Gentlemen, an opportunity has just presented itself in the new Windermere area. Whether you would like to walk to shopping and restaurants or take a short drive to the Horizon area, this special town home is sure to please. Welcome to the best view in relaxing Lakeside Village. As you drive past the newest Windermere shopping area, a special community is unfolding as you drive. A turn past the roundabouts and you are pulling into your oversized 2 car garage and driveway. You and your guests will admire the massive park and waterfront view while walking to main entrance of your home. As you walk through the front door, the magic begins. This former model town home is like walking into a designer tv show. Beautiful tile wood floors in the main foyer and bonus room to the left match your tastefully painted walls. An impressive stairwell and main foyer lead to the designer kitchen complete with stainless steel appliances and a built-in nook complete with your bistro table. A butler pantry with wine cooler and large pantry completes this cooking area that will certainly please the chef of the family
