Nestled in the heart of Orlando, stands a charming 4-large-bedroom, 2-bathroom home that exudes warmth and comfort. With a facade adorned by well-maintained landscaping, the home is a beacon of tranquility in this cute neighborhood. As you approach, the manicured lawn and freshly painted exterior welcomes you. The large lot, spanning 0.27 acres, provides ample space for outdoor activities and an ensured sense of privacy with the vinyl fence. The exterior boasts a recently redone roof in 2019, a testament to the care and attention given to the property. Being on the corner allows you to enter your backyard from the side street. Upon entering, a spacious foyer greets your guests with 2 closets to keep the clutter at bay. To the right, the formal living room opens up to the kitchen and gives a perfect privacy to entertain and enjoy. Beyond the kitchen is the formal dining room for those big get-togethers. Continuing through the dining room is the great room with a cozy, wood-burning fireplace perfect for ambiance and enjoying those winter months. You'll also find a split floor plan as the master is situated on one end of the home, while the generously sized secondary bedrooms are all on the opposite end of the home. One of the defining features of this home is its ample outdoor space including a large Florida room. Relax under its wood ceiling and screened in enclosure. The backyard is the ideal spot for lazy Sunday afternoons, reading a book, or sipping a cup of coffee while enjoying the peace and quiet. Plus, there's plenty of room to add a pool and there's even a cement pad to add a basketball hoop! Practicality met aesthetics as the air
